PANTZER EXPRESSES
SORROW ON DEATH
OF MSU'S PRES. JOHNSON

MISSOULA--

University of Montana President Robert T. Pantzer expressed deep sympathy Wednesday on learning of the death of Montana State University President Leon H. Johnson.

Referring to his long professional and personal friendship with the MSU leader, Pantzer said, "He was truly an outstanding and effective educator-administrator and a great Montanan and friend.

"Dr. Johnson made a tremendous contribution to education in Montana," Pantzer continued. "He will be sorely missed by education and all Montanans."
